	• Questions of Law and Fact
	• Relevance That Depends on a Fact
	• Preponderance Standard
	• Burden of Proof
	• Relationship to Rule 403
35	What Is Hearsay and Why Don’t We Like It?	424
	• In Daily Life, We Prefer Firsthand Reports to Secondhand Ones

- Courts Strongly Share This Preference
- Rule 802: Most Hearsay Is Barred from Trial
- Rule 801: Defining Hearsay
- A Declarant Is a Person Who Makes a Statement Based on Firsthand Knowledge
- Any Statement Is Potential Hearsay, Unless It Is Made by a Declarant on the Witness Stand in the Current Proceeding

36 The “Truth of the Matter Asserted” 437

- Statements Are Only Hearsay If Offered to Prove the Truth of the Matter Asserted
- Out-of-Court Statements Often Prove a Fact Other Than the Truth of the Matter They Assert
- When Offered for These Other Purposes, Statements Are Not Hearsay

37 What Is a Statement? 450

- Oral and Written Statements
- Conduct Is a Statement When the Actor Intends to Communicate Something Via the Conduct
- Audiotapes, Photographs, and Videotapes
- Machine Readouts

38 Admissible Hearsay 461

- Reliability and Need Are Keys to Hearsay Exceptions
- 31 Exceptions in Four Categories
- The Judge Decides Admissibility, Including Factual Issues, Under Rule 104(a)
- Sixth Amendment Limits Some Exceptions, But Only in Criminal Cases

39 Hearsay Exemption—Prior Statements by Witnesses 467

- Rule 801(d)(1) Exempts Some Prior Statements by Witnesses from the Hearsay Ban
- Witness Must Be Subject to Cross-Examination
- Inconsistent Prior Statements
- Consistent Prior Statements
- Identifications

40	Hearsay Exceptions—Present Sense Impressions and Excited Utterances	490
	• Rule 803(1): Hearsay Statement Is Admissible If Declarant Makes the Statement While Perceiving the Event
	• Rule 803(2): Hearsay Statement Is Admissible If Declarant Makes the Statement While Excited by the Event
	• Both Exceptions Assume That Declarant Is Less Likely to Lie Under Certain Conditions
41	Hearsay Exception—State of Mind	504
	• Rule 803(3): Hearsay Exception for Statements Expressing the Declarant’s Current State of Mind or a Mental or Physical Condition
	• References to External Facts
	• “I Think,” “I Believe,” “I Remember”
	• Using State of Mind to Prove the Declarant’s Previous or Subsequent Conduct
	• The Mysterious Hillmon Case: Using the Declarant’s State of Mind to Prove Another Person’s Conduct
42	Hearsay Exception—Medical Treatment	523
	• Rule 803(4): Hearsay Exception for Statements About Symptoms or Causes of Medical Conditions
	• Made for the Purposes of Medical Diagnosis or Treatment
	• Pertinent to Diagnosis or Treatment
	• Statements by and to Family Members
	• Diagnosis for Purposes of Litigation
	• Statements Attributing Blame or Fault
	• Psychological Conditions
	• Domestic and Sexual Abuse
43	Hearsay Exception—Recorded Recollection	536
	• Rule 803(5) Allows Admission of Recorded Recollection
	• Declarant Must Testify and Lack Current Memory
	• Other Foundation Requirements
	• Witness May Read Recorded Recollection; Only Adverse Party May Admit as Exhibit

44	Rule 805—Hearsay Within Hearsay	547
	• Rule 805: Multiple Levels of Hearsay Are Admissible as Long as Each Layer Fits Within an Exception
	• Challenges in Laying a Foundation
45	Hearsay Exception—Business Records	554
	• Rule 803(6) Admits Business Records
	• Broad Definition of “Business”
	• Record Must Be Kept in the Course of a Regularly Conducted Business Activity
	• Must Be Regular Practice to Keep Record
	• Trustworthiness Caveat Bars Records Made in Anticipation of Litigation
	• Double Hearsay Issues
46	Hearsay Exception—Public Records	569
	• Rule 803(8) Admits Three Categories of Public Records
	• Activities of a Public Office
	• Observations of a Public Office
	• Results of Public Investigations
	• Some Records Inadmissible Against Criminal Defendants
	• Trustworthiness Requirement
	• Opinions and Conclusions
	• Third-Party Statements
	• Intersection with Other Rules
47	Hearsay Exceptions—Other 803 Exceptions.	581
	• Rules 803(7) and 803(10): Absence of Entries in Business Records and Public Records
	• Rule 803(16): Ancient Documents
	• Rule 803(17): Market Reports and Similar Commercial Publications
	• Rule 803(18): Learned Treatises
48	Rule 804 Introduction—What Is Unavailability?	594
	• Rule 804 Hearsay Exceptions Apply Only If the Declarant Is Unavailable

- Five Types of Unavailability
 - Privilege
 - Refusal to Testify
 - Lack of Memory
 - Death or Illness
 - Cannot Be Found or Brought to Court
- Proponent Must Show Unavailability
- 49 Hearsay Exception—Former Testimony 601
 - Rule 804(b)(1): Admissibility of Former Testimony
 - Declarant Must Be Unavailable
 - Testimony Under Oath at Prior Trial, Hearing, or Deposition
 - Opportunity and Similar Motive to Develop Testimony
 - Same Party or Predecessor in Interest
 - Comparison to Rule 801(d)(1)
- 50 Hearsay Exception—Dying Declarations 612
 - Rule 804(b)(2): Dying Declarations
 - Declarant Must Believe That Death Is Imminent
 - Statement Must Concern Circumstances of Death
 - Admissible in Any Civil Case and in Homicide Prosecutions
 - Declarant Need Not Die, But Must Be Unavailable
- 51 Hearsay Exception—Statement Against Interest 618
 - Rule 804(b)(3): Hearsay Exception for Statement Against Declarant’s Interest
 - Declarant Must Be Unavailable
 - Statements Offered in Criminal Cases Need Corroboration
- 52 Hearsay Exception—Forfeiture 628
 - Rule 804(b)(6): Admits Hearsay Against Party That Intentionally and Wrongfully Procured Witness’s Unavailability
 - Wrongdoing
 - Acquiescence
 - Intent

53	Hearsay Exemption—Statements by an Opposing Party . . .	635
	• Rule 801(d)(2): Every Statement by an Opposing Party Is Exempted from Hearsay Rule
	• Adopted Statements
	• Statements Made by Agents
	• Statements Authorized by Party
54	Statements by Opposing Parties in the Context of Multiple Parties	649
	• “Same Side” Issue: May One Party Offer Statement Against Another Party on the Same Side of the Litigation?
	• “Spillover” Issue: Out-of-Court Statement by One Party Is Not Admissible Against Co-Plaintiffs or Codefendants
	• Limiting Instruction to Prevent Spillover
	• Confrontation Clause Limits Use of Statements with Spillover Effect Against Criminal Defendants
55	Hearsay Exemption—Statements of Coconspirators	664
	• Rule 801(d)(2)(E): Admits Conspirator’s Out-of-Court Statement Against All Coconspirators
	• Course of Conspiracy
	• Concealment
	• “In Furtherance of” the Conspiracy
	• Preliminary Determinations
56	Residual Exception	681
	• Rule 807 Admits Some Hearsay Falling Outside Enumerated Exceptions
	• Must Have Equivalent Circumstantial Guarantees of Trustworthiness
	• Proponent Must Have No Other Reasonable Way to Prove Facts
	• Proponent Must Give Notice
	• Courts Use Exception Very Rarely
57	Attacking a Declarant’s Credibility	691
	• Rule 806: Parties Can Impeach Declarants with Article VI Tools

	• Rule Does Not Apply to Most Statements That Are “Not Hearsay”
	• Extrinsic Evidence of Declarant’s Dishonest Acts
58	The Sixth Amendment and Hearsay	699
	• Confrontation Clause Protects Criminal Defendants, Not Other Parties
	• Confrontation Means Cross-Examination
	• The Clause Applies Only to “Testimonial Statements”
	• Testimonial Is Hard to Define
	• Availability, Cross-Examination, and Exceptions
59	Judicial Notice	731
	• Rule 201: Judicial Notice Allowed
	• Adjudicative and Legislative Facts
	• Two-Part Standard
	• Instructions to Jury in Civil and Criminal Cases
	• Judicial Notice Allowed at Any Time
	• Stipulations and Judicial Notice
60	Lay Opinions	743
	• Rule 701 Allows Non-Experts to Testify as to Opinions Under Three Conditions
	• Lay Opinion Must Be Based on Personal Observation
	• Must Be Helpful to Jury
	• May Not Rest on Scientific, Technical, or Specialized Knowledge
61	What Subjects Are Appropriate for Expert Testimony?	755
	• Rule 702: Admission of Expert Testimony
	• Judge Serves as Gatekeeper
	• Flexible Inquiry Into Reliability, Fit, and Unfair Prejudice
	• Daubert Factors: Non-Exclusive Criteria for Assessing Reliability
	• Rule Applies to All Types of Expertise
	• Daubert Hearings

62	Qualifying Experts	773
	• Laying a Foundation
	• Voir Dire by Opposing Counsel
	• Expert Need Not Have Formal Education or Training
63	Bases of Expert Opinion	781
	• Expert Opinions Are More Complex Than Lay Ones
	• Rules 703 and 705: Expert Testimony Need Not Rest on Personal Observation
	• Data Supporting Expert Opinion Need Not Be Admissible
	• Conditions for Expert to Disclose Inadmissible Supporting Evidence
64	Limits on Opinion and Expert Testimony	799
	• Rule 704: No Automatic Prohibition of Testimony on Ultimate Issues
	• Courts Continue to Protect the Province of the Jury Under Rules 701, 702, and 403
	• Mental State of Criminal Defendant
	• Opinions on Other Legal Conclusions
	• Probability Evidence
	• Polygraphs
	• Expert Testimony About Eyewitness Reliability
65	Court-Appointed Experts	815
	• Judges Have Inherent Power to Appoint Their Own Experts
	• Rule 706 Creates Process for These Appointments
66	Introduction to Privileges	820
	• Purposes of Evidentiary Privileges
	• Rule 501: Federal Rules of Privilege Develop Through Common Law
	• State Privilege Rules Apply in Diversity Cases
	• Overview of Privileges
	• Common Privilege Issues
67	Attorney–Client Privilege	829
	• Protects Confidential Legal Communications Between Client and Attorney Related to Legal Services

- Crime–Fraud Exception

- Privilege Against Self-Incrimination

69 Authentication 868

- Parties Must Authenticate All Evidence Except Live Testimony
- Evidence “Sufficient to Support a Finding” That the Evidence “Is What the Proponent Claims”
- Rule 901: Nonexhaustive List of Ways to Authenticate Evidence
- Rule 902: Documents That Are Self-Authenticating
- Authentication Doesn’t Trump Other Evidentiary Objections

70 Best Evidence 885

- Article X: Party Must Offer Original Writing, Recording, or Photograph to Prove Content
- Duplicates Frequently Allowed
- Exceptions, Proof by Admission, and Public Records
- Relationship to Other Rules

71 Presumptions 904

- Four Categories of Presumptions
- Rule 302: State Law Governs Presumptions in Diversity Suits
- Rule 301: Bubble-Bursting Presumptions Are the Default Rule in Other Federal Civil Cases

- Constitutional Law Governs Presumptions in Criminal Cases

72 The Role of The Jury 916

- Need to Protect Legitimacy and Finality of Jury Verdicts
- Rule 606(b): Jurors Are Incompetent to Testify About Statements, Thoughts, or Actions That Occurred During Deliberations
- Internal/External Distinction
- Rule Does Not Limit Non-Jurors
